

PSALM 100

To thank Hashem for the miracles
He performs for us

THIS IS the last of the 11 chapters that Moshe composed. There are different explanations regarding the theme of this chapter. Some explain it to be a continuation of the Redemption theme, describing the praise the Jewish Nation and the other nations will offer God for His salvation. Others understand it to be discussing the thanksgiving sacrifice that must be offered in celebration of miracles—this being the song that would accompany the offering. Yet others understand it to be an inspiring song for individuals who are pained by the exile. Everything God does is for our benefit. Recognizing this allows us to serve God with joy, despite any suffering.

1 A song that is sung by a person who brings a thanksgiving-offering. When God performs a miracle, all the nations of the earth sing to God with joy.

2 Serve God and fulfill His commandments happily. Come to Him with songs of joy. 3 Know that the Lord is God and is all-capable. Know that He created us and we are special to Him; we are His people and He takes care of us as a shepherd cares for the sheep of His pasture.

4 When you experience a miracle, come through His gates, the gates of the Holy Temple, with a thanksgiving-offering; visit His courtyards, the courtyards of the Holy Temple, with praise. Give thanks to Him and bless His name, 5 because God is good. He rules the universe with His everlasting kindness, and His trustworthiness in fulfilling His promises will last for all generations.

א מְזִמּוֹר לְתוֹדָה,

הֲרִיעוּ לַיהוָה כָּל־הָאָרֶץ:

ב עֲבָדוּ אֶת־יְהוָה בְּשִׂמְחָה,

בָּאוּ לְפָנָיו בְּרִנָּה:

ג דַּעוּ כִּי־יְהוָה הוּא אֱלֹהִים,

הוּא עֲשָׂנוּ וְלוֹ אֲנַחְנוּ,

עֲמוּ וְצֵאוּ מִרְעִיתוֹ:

ד בָּאוּ שְׁעָרָיו | בְּתוֹדָה,

חֲצִרְתִּיו בְּתֵהְלָה,

הוֹדוּ לוֹ בְּרִכּוֹ שְׁמוֹ:

ה כִּי־טוֹב יְהוָה לְעוֹלָם

חֲסִדּוֹ,

וְעַד־דָּר וָדָר אֲמוֹנָתוֹ:
